Deduct and Cover

April Ambrozy Accounting

If current events have taught you anything, it's to pay your taxes. Every year. Which you'll do, oh, sometime before midnight, April 15. Right after you get your act together.

Save yourself the trouble, grab that shoe box of assorted receipts, and visit accountant April Ambrozy.

As an artist, she understands creative types — which means she won't laugh at your unorthodox filing methods. Instead, she'll sort the deductions that have you in a dither, and serve espresso while she's at it.

In addition to her tax services, Ambrozy's your go-to-girl for financial advising. She'll help you set up a retirement fund, give you guidance on investments, and show you how to make your start-up business legit.

Her years of experience and relaxed approach will put you at ease.

And that's only part of the payoff.
